The gang's all here.

Is it Friday yet?

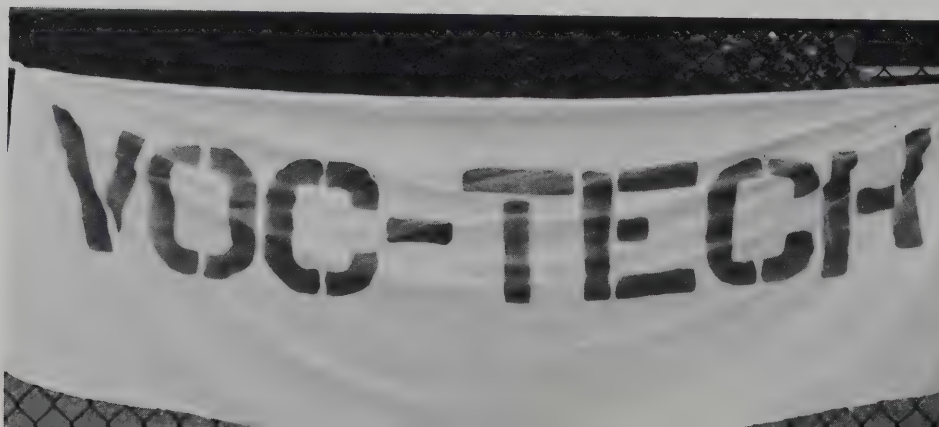

Hi mom!

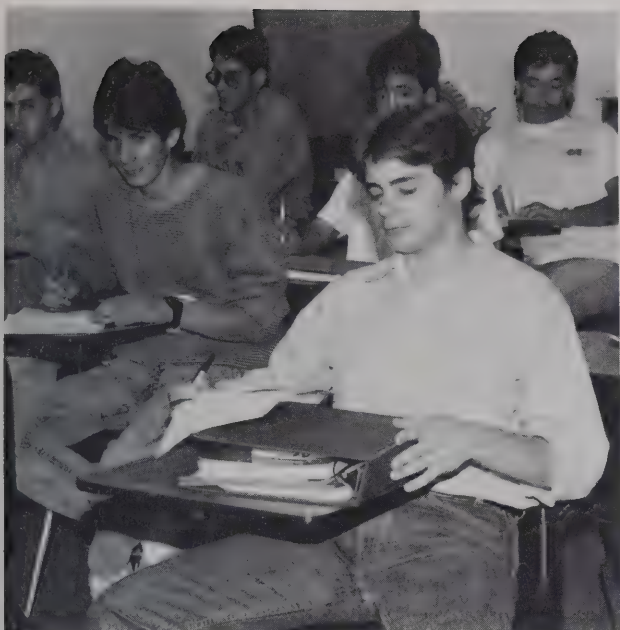

Ooh, I hope this is right.

Do I pass now, Mr. Duval?

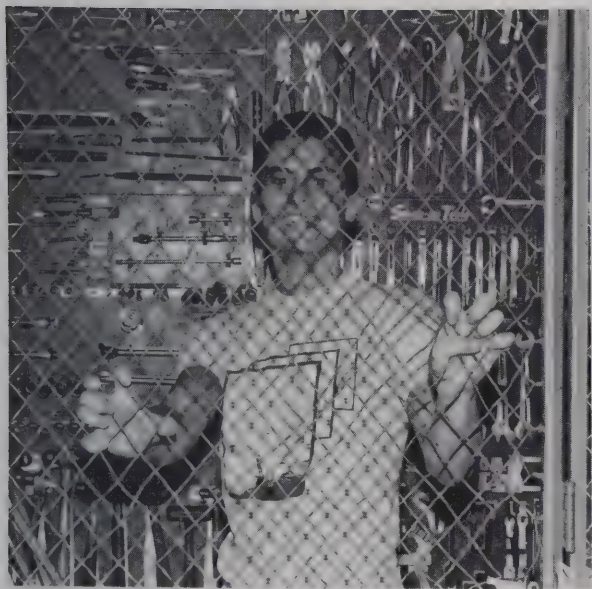

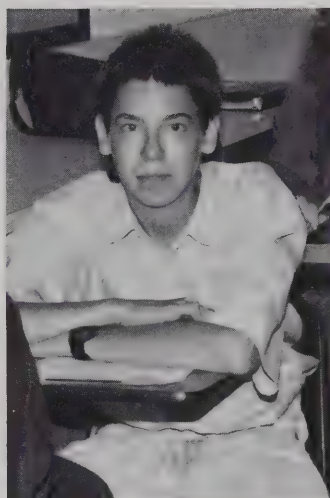

Psst! I can't see Number 3?

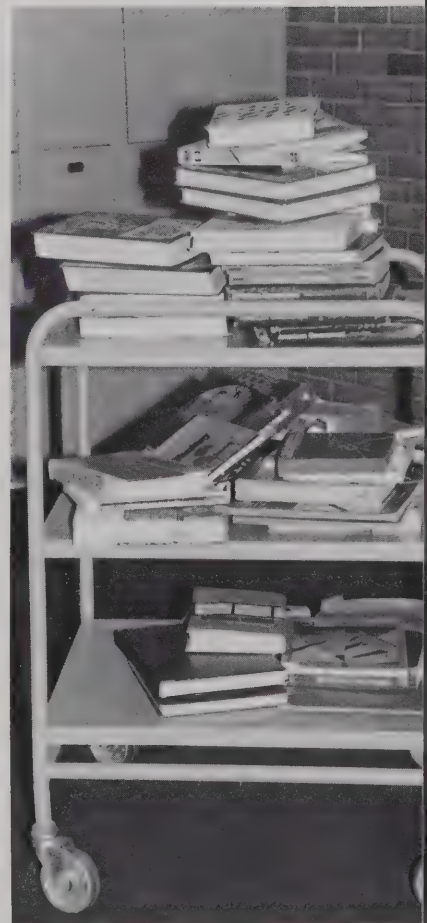

I don't think that's funny!

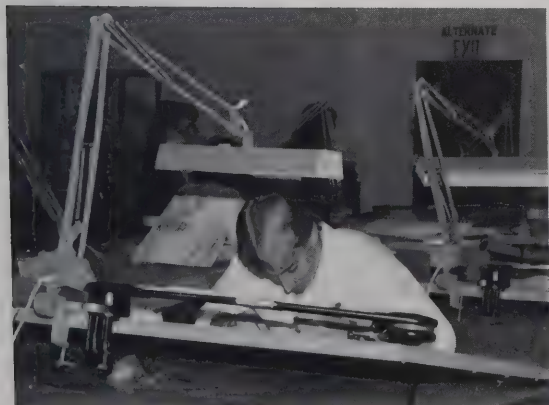

Please don't feed the animal!

Posing for animal crackers.

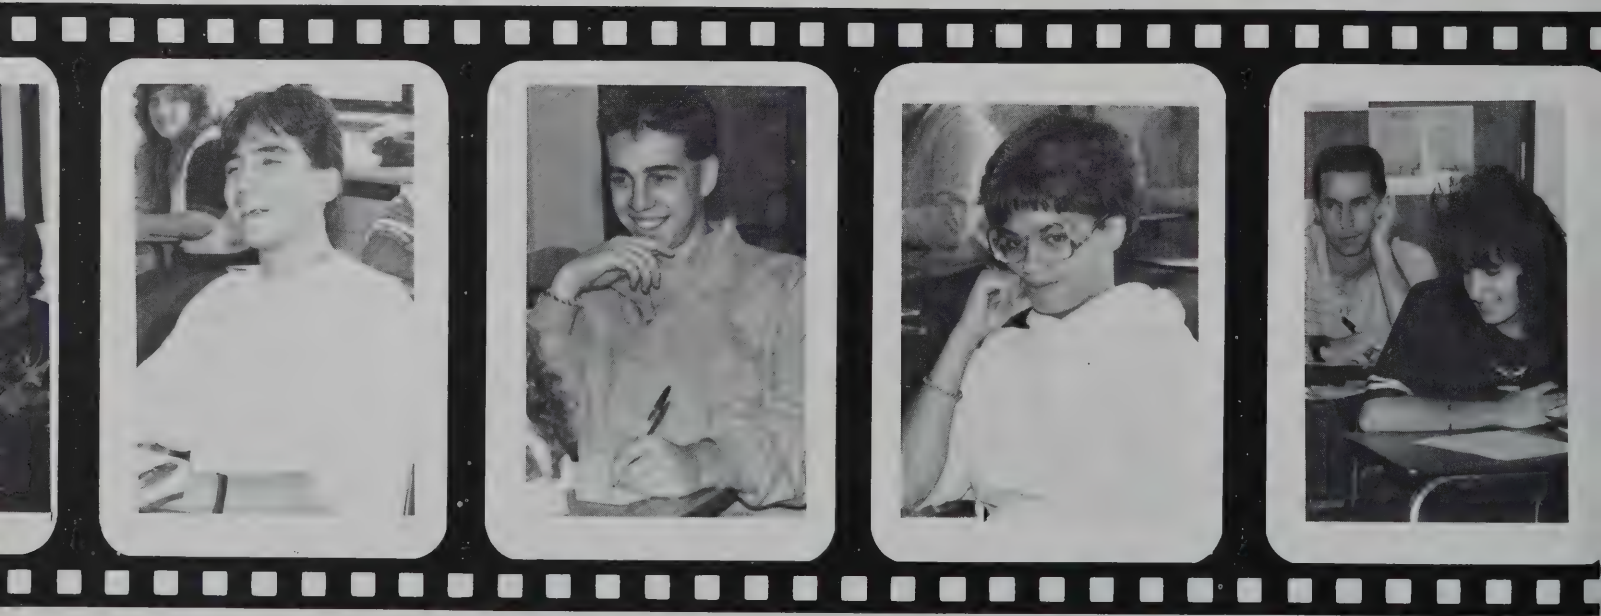

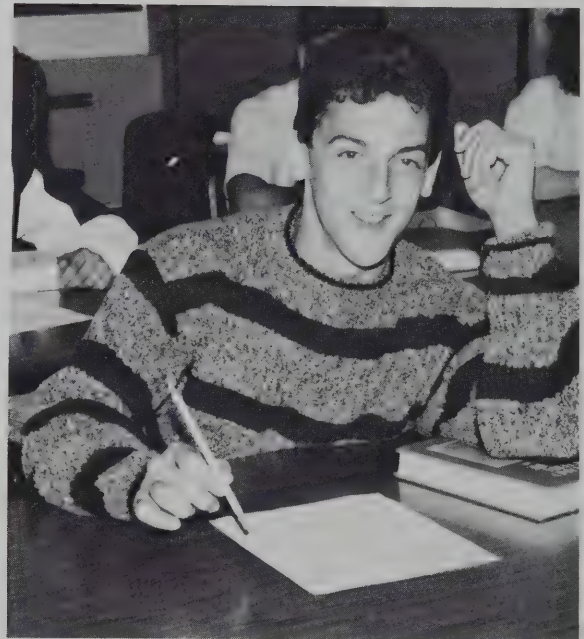

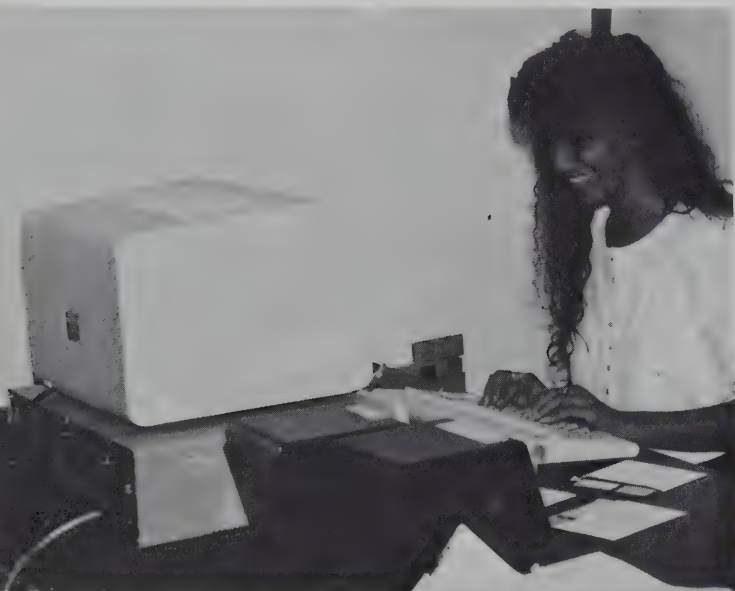

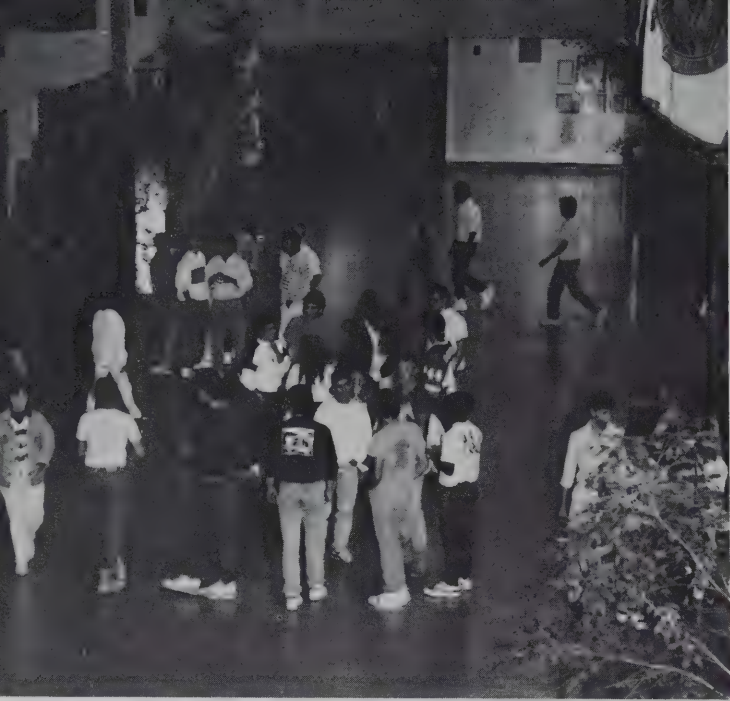

We don't need no education.

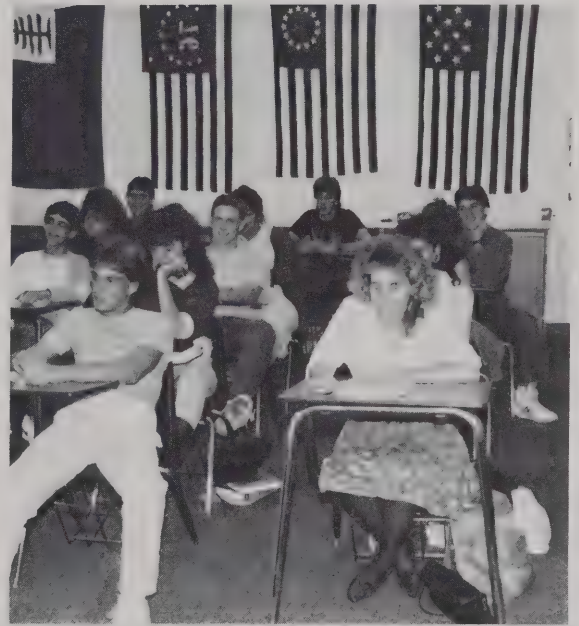

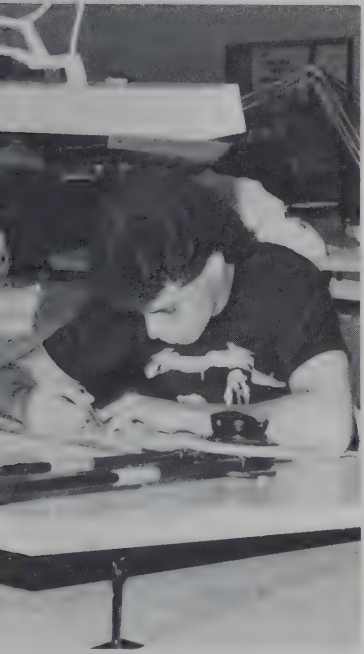

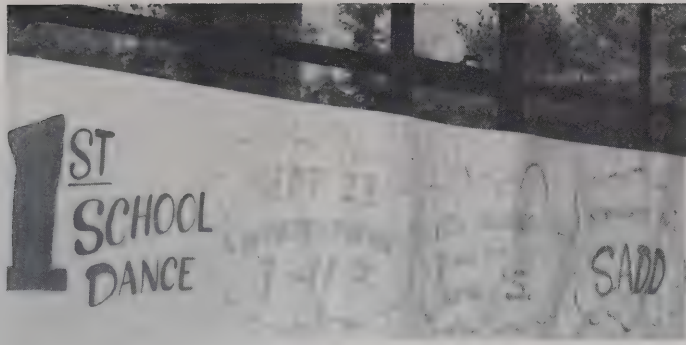

You mean I'm going the wrong way.

Dear Graduates of the Class of 1989:

Congratulations to each and every one of you. You will be facing many challenges in the next few years. It is comforting to know that your training at the Greater New Bedford Regional Vocational Technical High School has prepared you to meet these challenges. The students, staff, and school are recognized as one of the leading educational occupational training centers in the state. Our students are recognized as having positive work attitudes, high technical skill levels, and strong academic training.

The students of this year's graduating class have the distinct advantage of having been trained to cope with our ever changing and technical job market. We have trained you to face the many challenges that lie before you and feel secure in knowing you will meet and conquer them.

Good Luck!

Jeffrey E. Riker

Miss M. E. Cronin

Greetings to the Class of 1989:

I would like to congratulate the Class of 1989 for their effort and determination during their four years at Greater New Bedford Regional Vocational Technical High School. This class has been one of the finest graduating classes of the school and I can see a very bright future for many of the students. The future will only be as good as you want it to be. Good luck and continue to strive for excellence.

In Memory of . . .

Mary Jo DaCosta

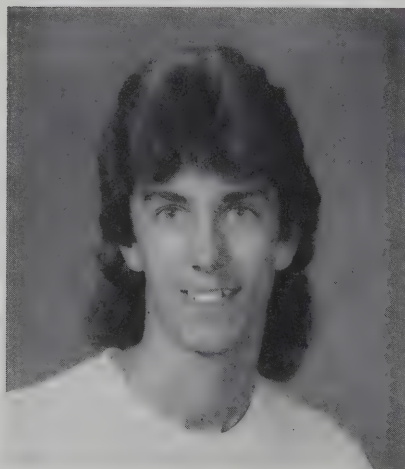

It's hard to believe that you're gone.
But your smile and laughter will linger on.
We miss you more than words can say.
Our memories of you are in our hearts to stay.
I guess you could say life's just one big test.
We know now why He chose you,
because you're one of the best.
But it's not goodbye and it's not the end.
Just see you later, until we meet again.

We Love You Always

Do not stand by my grave and weep
I am not there I do not sleep
I am a thousand winds that blow
I am a diamond glint on snow
I am sunlight on ripened grain
I am the gentle autumn rain
When you awake in the morning hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds encircling flight
I am the soft starshine at night
Do not stand by my grave and cry
I am not there, I did not die.

Craig Jones

Jose A. Medeiros Jr.

There was a young man named Joe.
More people loved him than he'll ever know.
His love, friendship and personality
he did show and shine.
He was a good person, funny and kind.
No one knew his life would end so fast.
We have his memories to look back
and remember in the past.
An angel came down and said: "Joe take my hand,
I've been sent to take you to the Promised Land."
Joe looked up and grabbed her hand.
She said: "Walk with me towards that beautiful light."
Joe said: "Can you please wait?"
I can meet you at the "Pearly Gates"
then I'll go with you through the light.
I have to tell my family, my friends and my Brandy,
I love you and good night.

Love, Gayle

Wishing We Were Still Here

*Time goes by too fast
Sometimes we wish it would last
But we have memories that will hold true
And they will be for me and you
We've made many friends
Friends that will last 'til the end
We've struggled with pressure
But we'll always hold on to this treasure
As the time passes
We will miss all our classes
Now that we leave this school
We have to go to the world so cruel
Carrying a trade we learned so dear
Always wishing we were still here*
